Dear Members and Friends

In 2011-2012, the Junior League of Chicago (JLC) entered its 100th year of proudly serving Chicago. In 1912, a group of young women came together to improve the lives of those in the greatest need in our city. Today, our 1,600 trained volunteers continue to serve the great city of Chicago by identifying community needs and developing effective and responsive programs to address those needs.

Throughout our 100 years, our commitment to our mission of promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers has remained steadfast. As we enter into our special Centennial celebrations, we have looked for ways to honor the past, celebrate the present and prepare for the future.

The net proceeds generated by special events and donor contributions allow the JLC to continue to serve its mission and improve the lives of those in Chicago. The funds are used not only to support the projects, but also to support the training programs that set JLC volunteers apart from those in other volunteer organizations. The cornerstone of our organization is our commitment to training, and each of our members commits to developing her skills as a volunteer. Voluntarism has been our business for 100 years, but training the volunteer is what makes the Junior League of Chicago successful.

The JLC is tremendously grateful to so many for our continued success: our dedicated staff, the agencies we partner with that motivate us to develop innovative solutions, our community advisory council who help us continue to work towards our mission and our donors and sponsors. I would also like to thank Delane Heldt, the 2011-2012 Executive Vice President who so ably served the JLC as Chief Operating Officer. I would also like to thank the Board of Directors and the Management committee for their leadership and motivation. Finally, I would like to thank the 1,600 women who make up the Junior League of Chicago – each day I learn something new from you and your commitment to the JLC continues to build a better Chicago. It has been a tremendous honor to serve as your President for the past two years.

Warmly,

Regina Wootton, President, 2010-2012

Letter from the Treasurer

The 2011–2012 year was a very exciting year for the Junior League of Chicago as we entered the first phase of our Centennial commemoration. One of our first initiatives begins with the community. The JLC allocated an additional $120,000 to Centennial Days of Service for a two year period, on top of Community Councils yearly budget. We are proud to be able to increase financial support to research and develop our community projects, while demonstrating our ability to drive initiatives and institutions in the community for another 100 years. During our centennial, the JLC has also been tasked with equally high fundraising goals. As of May 31, 2012, the Centennial Gala had already raised $161,062 in deferred income, making it one of the largest fundraisers in JLC history. As we closed the 2011–2012 year, the JLC remained financially strong with over $2.03 million in cash and investments. We are thankful to countless people for our continued success and look forward to another 100 years serving, educating, and supporting our community.

— Jacqueline Cheatham, 2011–2012 Treasurer

The experiences I've had within the Junior League of Chicago vary, from sharing job search techniques to women in rehabilitation from drug or alcohol abuse to helping to educate children on the value of healthy eating habits. I am so grateful that the Junior League has afforded me such a fantastic route to get involved in the Chicagoland area and leave a small and hopefully positive mark on the city.

Our amazing members have been involved with many groundbreaking projects over the years that have changed the Chicagoland area. But for me, it's the little things...the smiles, the laughs and the hugs we get when we're out in the community that remind me that the volunteer work we do is truly important.

When I moved to Chicago nearly three years ago, I was looking for a way to meet like-minded women and get involved, and the JLC was a great fit. The spirit of service and commitment to the community is so strong and genuine. I've had the opportunity to see the impact of one person through internal and community placements and meet tremendous women.

I've had the opportunity to serve on a variety of community projects and witness firsthand the impact JLC can have on the women and children it serves - particularly through the healthy lifestyles initiative. With issues like obesity, heart disease and diabetes becoming so much more prevalent, the JLC's work to educate underserved communities on the importance of exercise and healthy eating, even when on a budget, will help ensure they have a bright and healthy future.
